

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction
RALPH A. AUSTEN AND MAHIR ŞAUL	I
PART I. THE “PROBLEM” OF NOLLYWOOD
1. What Is to Be Done? Film Studies and Nigerian and Ghanaian Videos
JONATHAN HAYNES	II
2. Nollywood and Its Critics
ONOOKOME OKOME	26
3. Ghanaian Popular Video Movies between State Film Policies and Nollywood Discourses and Tensions
BIRGIT MEYER	42
4. Islam, Hausa Culture, and Censorship in Northern Nigerian Video Film
ABDALLA UBA ADAMU	63
5. Nollywood Goes East The Localization of Nigerian Video Films in Tanzania
MATTHIAS KRINGS	74
PART II. IMPORTED FILMS AND THEIR AFRICAN AUDIENCES
6. Commentary and Orality in African Film Reception
VINCENT BOUCHARD	95
7. Songs, Stories, Action! Audience Preferences in Tanzania, 1950s–1980s
LAURA FAIR	108
PART III. FESPACO/ART FILM IN THE LIGHT OF NOLLYWOOD
8. Art, Politics, and Commerce in Francophone African Cinema
MAHIR ŞAUL	133

Contents

9.	Outside the Machine? Donor Values and the Case of Film in Tanzania JANE BRYCE	160
10.	Emitai : Basic Stylistic Elements Shot Length, Camera Movement, and Character Movement PETER RIST	178
11.	Curses, Nightmares, and Realities Cautionary Pedagogy in FESPACO Films and Igbo Videos STEFAN SEREDA	194
12.	The Return of the Mercedes From Ousmane Sembene to Kenneth Nnebue LINDSEY GREEN-SIMMS	209
13.	U.S. Distribution of African Film California Newsreel's Library of African Cinema: A Case Study CORNELIUS MOORE	225
	Selected Bibliography of African Cinema	231
	Contributors	239
	Index of Film Titles	243
	General Index	245