

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Series Editors' Preface	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction	I

One

Settlement and Strife 5

Protecting Slavery in Kansas Territory	8
Thomas Wells Describes Kansas	11
A South Carolinian Enters Kansas Territory	13
Imprisoned on Charges of Treason	14
The Pottawatomie Massacre	16
Kansas as an Outpost in a Larger War	17
Ephraim Nute on the Doy Incident	21

Two

Joining the Union 23

“What is Kansas, with or without slavery, if she should destroy the rights and union of the states?”	25
Pursuing Women's Rights in Territorial Kansas	29
The Fort Scott Democrat on Harpers Ferry	33
Drought in Kansas Territory	34
Miscellaneous Accounts of Conditions Resulting from Drought	34
Thaddeus Hyatt's Appeal for Kansas Relief	38
“The Irrepressible Conflict Grows Warm”	39
“Freedom & Oppression grappled hand to hand”	41
The Thirty-fourth State Joins the Union	43
A Democratic Sheet Finds a Political Equilibrium	45
“I begin to think Kansas fated”	47
“No man in Kansas dares raise a secession flag”	48

*Three*Patronage and Policy 50

“Those having no guns must use broomsticks”	53
“An effort is being made to get up a panic”	55
Two Newspapers Assess Lane’s Defense of His Brigade	56
Kansas “no very agreeable command”	61
Lane a Charlatan Whose Appointment Would Imperil the Union	63
Left to “the mercies of a vindictive and relentless force”	67
“I must hold Missouri responsible”	67
“The merits of the Kansas people need not to be argued to me”	69

*Four*Kansas’s Men in Blue 72

Kansas Exceeds Its Quota	74
A Wisconsin Soldier Moves through Kansas	75
Excerpts from Joseph Trego’s Letters	77
A Douglas Democrat Pledges Himself to Lincoln	82
“The cause of the war must be removed”: The Letters of Samuel Ayers	85
The First Kansas Colored Infantry at Island Mound, Missouri	90
To Be Kept Here “will disable and Destroy us”	93
Proud to Be in the West’s Army	94
John A. Martin Reports on the Battle of Chickamauga	96
A Magnificent Effort, “But at what a sacrifice!”	100
The Battle of Poison Spring, Arkansas	101
The Diary and Letters of Webster Moses	105
The Draft: “some one is to blame”	110
The Diaries of David R. Braden	112

*Five*Warfare along the Kansas-Missouri Border 117

“Extermination is our motto”	121
Life and Death on the Border	124
The Lawrence Massacre	125
“A Night of Terror”	127
“Death, sudden and most unexpected”	130
“The old border hatred”: Official Report on the Lawrence Massacre	132
“I shall not leave Lawrence until it is destroyed the third time”	136

A Young Signal Corpsman Sees Bushwhackers for the First Time	138
James Lane on Sterling Price's 1864 Raid	139

Six

Kansans and Antislavery 143

The Fugitive Slave Law in Kansas	145
"First remove the cause of the disease, then cure" it.	146
Fleeing into Kansas	147
The Fort Scott Bulletin on Contrabands	148
A Subscription to Aid Colored Volunteers	150
"In the throes of deliverance from the monster slavery"	150
Emancipation: Doing Right	152
The Battle of Honey Springs	153
"The onward march of Anti-Slavery"	155
Worried that African Americans Would Gain the Vote in Kansas	156
"They begin to think that the collord men can fight"	157
The Lessons of the War	160

Seven

Politics and Prosperity 162

Decrying the "depart in peace" Doctrine	165
The Bond Swindle	166
War and Prosperity	168
Stutely Stafford Nichols and the Opportunities of War	169
Kansas Men "are stealing themselves rich in the name of Liberty"	171
Government Corruption in Kansas	173
Quartermaster's Report, Fort Leavenworth, 1863	176
"Who is Loyal?"	178
The Death of President Lincoln	179

Eight

The Continuing Mission 181

"The Cherokees are arming and are preparing to invade Kansas"	183
Losses Sustained during an 1861 Cherokee Raid	185
"The most Experienced men are unable to control these savages"	187
"Their country should be redeemed"	189
A Member of the Indian Home Guard Writes of Neosho	194

“The Indians seem to want to make peace”	195
The Eleventh Kansas in the West	196
Major Hancock on Indian Affairs in Kansas	205

Nine

The Promise of Kansas 212

“Traversed by the Iron horse”	215
Farming Continues amid the Distractions	216
“We dont want any more cry of famine”	217
Kansas Suffrage Song	218
“Lands for the landless”	219
The Railroad’s Route	221
Rocky Mountain Grasshoppers Come to Kansas	222
“Ho for Kansas!”	224
The Exodus “will test the boasted love of liberty in the north”	230
Struggling to Provide for the Refugees	233
“They still come”	233
Timeline	237
Discussion Questions	249
Notes	253
Selected Bibliography	259
Index	263