

C O N T E N T S

“The heart has its abandoned mines . . .”	1
Chèvrefeuille	2
Getting Away	3
Water	5
Happiness	6
Hérédia	7
The Man from Provins	8
Before Sleep	10
The Old Model’s Advice to the New Model	11
Edgar	12
Listening	13
What I Think	14
The Scholar as a Naughty Boy	15
Anglais Mort à Santa Barbara	16
The Skeptic	17
Driving	18
Do you remember those few hours we spent	19
Flying Back	20
Three Emilys	22
Turgenev and Friends	23
Under $6 a Bottle	24
“They are not long, the days of wine and roses . . .”	25
Shopping	26
Chagrin	27
Pasts	27
A Visit to Grandmother’s	29
Can We?	30

Cythère	31
Young Scholar	32
Farsighted	33
On a Remark of Karl Kraus	34
I lay down in the darkness of my soul	35
Preferences	36
Small Talk	37
Not-Waking	37
Imitatio	37
“Live all you can; it’s a mistake not to”	37
Magic	38
Soteriological	38
“Interpretation is the revenge of the intellect upon art”	38
Author, Translator . . .	39
Damnation à la Mode	39
Finding	39
There	40
Acculturation	40
Spleen	40
The Phoenix	41
Dis’s Defense	42
William MacGonagall Welcomes the Initiative for a Greater Role for Faith-Based Education	43
William Morris	44
Driving Westward	45
Are we going the same way?	46
Emblems	47
A Mystery Novel	48
Notes	51