

Contents

PREFACE	vii
DE WITT SKETCH OF THE SWAN THEATER	ix
1. FIRST STEPS: Writing for Performance; Using the Physical Features of the Playhouses; Sound Effects and Music; Writing with Specific Actors in Mind; “The Purpose of Playing”	1
2. ENTRANCES AND EARLY WORDS	24
3. EXITS	42
4. CHARACTERIZATION	60
5. SCENES NOT SHOWN	81
6. CONTROLLING THE AUDIENCE’S RESPONSES (I): Places; Times of Day and Night; The Bible	98
7. CONTROLLING THE AUDIENCE’S RESPONSES (II): Long Plot Lines; Setting Up Situations Early; Risk Management; Two Storms	115
8. UNTRUTHFUL BEHAVIOR: Telling and Acting Lies in The Merry Wives of Windsor , Romeo and Juliet , Much Ado about Nothing , All’s Well That Ends Well , Measure for Measure , King Lear , Cymbeline , and The Winter’s Tale	131
9. STAGING DECISIVE MOMENTS: The Letter Scene in Twelfth Night , The Observation Scene in Troilus and Cressida , and Leontes’ Denunciation of Hermione to Camillo in The Winter’s Tale	147
10. PROLOGUES AND CHORUSES	166
NOTES	183
BIBLIOGRAPHY	191
INDEX	197