

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Foreword DONALD WORSTER	xi
Acknowledgments	xv
Il Bel Paese An Introduction MARCO ARMIERO AND MARCUS HALL	1
FOUNDATIONS
Chapter 1. The Distinctive Character of Italian Environmental History PIERO BEVILACQUA	15
Chapter 2. Upside-Down Landscapes Seismicity and Seismic Disasters in Italy EMANUELA GUIDOBONI	33
Chapter 3. Moving Ground Vesuvius and the Nola Mudslides of the Nineteenth Century WALTER PALMIERI	56
Chapter 4. Environmental Imperialism in Sardinia Pesticides and Politics in the Struggle against Malaria MARCUS HALL	70

COMMONS AND FORESTS

- Chapter 5. The Decline of the Commons and the Environmental Balance in Early Modern Italy
GABRIELLA CORONA 89
- Chapter 6. Forest Visions in Early Modern Italy
BRUNO VECCHIO 108
- Chapter 7. Environmental Heritage of a Past Cultural Landscape
Alder Woods in the Upper Aveto Valley of the Northwestern Apennines
ROBERTA CEVASCO 126
- Chapter 8. Act Locally, Think Nationally
A Brief History of Access Rights and Environmental Conflicts in Fascist Italy
WILKO GRAF VON HARDENBERG 141

POLLUTION, INDUSTRY, AND URBAN ENVIRONMENT

- Chapter 9. Dealing with Industrial Pollution in Italy, 1880–1940
SIMONE NERI SERNERI 161
- Chapter 10. Petrochemical Modernity in Sicily
SALVATORE ADORNO 180
- Chapter 11. The Seveso Disaster Legacy
LAURA CENTEMERI 195

LANDSCAPE, CULTURE, AND ENVIRONMENTALISM

- Chapter 12. A “Natural” Capitalism
Water and the Making of the Italian Industrial Landscape
STEFANIA BARCA 215
- Chapter 13. Nationalizing the Mountains
Natural and Political Landscapes in World War I
MARCO ARMIERO 231

Chapter 14. Nature Preservation and Protection in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Italy, 1880–1950
LUIGI PICCIONI	251
Selected Bibliography	269
Contributors	279
Index	283