

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction Indian Ocean Pearling Worlds PEDRO MACHADO	5
PART I: COMMODIFICATION
Chapter 1 The Pearl Commodity Chain, Early Nineteenth Century to the End of the Second World War Trade, Processing, and Consumption WILLIAM G. CLARENCE-SMITH	31
Chapter 2 Tea, Pearls, and Pearl Shell Cross-Cultural Trade, Slave Raiding, and the Transformation of Material Worlds—The Sulu Zone, China, and the West, 1349–1898 JAMES FRANCIS WARREN	55
PART II: REGULATION, RESOURCE MANAGEMENT, AND SCIENCE
Chapter 3 An Uncertain Venture Pearling Labor and Imperial Political Economy in South India and Sri Lanka, ca. 1790–1840 SAMUEL M. OSTROFF	85

Chapter 4	The Pearler's Problem Management, Markets, and the Marine Environment in the Shark Bay Pearling Industry JOSEPH CHRISTENSEN	118
Chapter 5	Early Pearling on the Indian Ocean's Southeast Fringe MICHAEL MCCARTHY	147
PART III: REGIONALIZATION AND GLOBALIZATION
Chapter 6	Shell Routes Exploring Burma's Pearling Histories PEDRO MACHADO	183
Chapter 7	Pearl Fishing, Migration, and Globalization in the Persian Gulf, Eighteenth to Twentieth Centuries ROBERT CARTER	232
Chapter 8	Enslaved Africans and the Globalization of Arabian Gulf Pearling MATTHEW S. HOPPER	263
Chapter 9	Torres Strait in the Moluccas The Transformation of Pearling in the Residency of Ambon, Netherlands Indies, 1890s–1942 STEVE MULLINS	281
PART IV: LIFE-STORIES, MEMORY, AND EXPERIENCES
Chapter 10	Pearling Fortunes Recovering 'Alī al-Nahārī, a Legendary Red Sea Magnate in the Early Twentieth Century JONATHAN MIRAN	313

Chapter 11	Pearling Women in North Australia Indigenous Workers and Wives JULIA T. MARTÍNEZ	344
Chapter 12	“Pearly Shells,” a “Perfect Pearl,” and a Guitar in a Pillowcase Australian Pearling Industry Songs as Community and Personal Memories KARL NEUENFELDT	364
	Selected Bibliography	401
	Contributors	413
	Index	419