CONTENTS

List of Illustrations ix
Acknowledgments xi
A Note on Names xv
Introduction 1

PART I Languages, Tropes, and Landscape in the Beginnings of English Language Poetry

One Contact Poetics in Eighteenth-Century Calcutta
Sir William Jones, Sir John Horsford, and Anna Maria 17

Two Bards and Sybils
Landscape, Gender, and the Culture of Dispute in the Poems of H. L. V. Derozio and Emma Roberts 63

PART II The Institutions of Colonial Mimesis, 1830–57

Three Books, Reading, and the Profession of Letters
David Lester Richardson and the Construction of a British Canon in India 101

Four Sighing, or Not, for Albion
Kasiprasad Ghosh, Michael Madhusudan Dutt, and Mary Carshore 137

PART III Nationalisms, Religion, and Aestheticism in the Late Nineteenth Century

Five From Christian Piety to Cosmopolitan Nationalisms
The Dutt Family Album and the Poems of Mary E. Leslie and Toru Dutt 181

Six Cosmopolitanism, Nationalism, and Aestheticism in Fin-de-Siècle London
Manmohan Ghose, Sarojini Naidu, and Rabindranath Tagore 227

Epilogue 268
Notes 281
Bibliography 309
Index 325