

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Abbreviations	xvii
Introduction	1
PART 1: LOYAL COMPANIONS, TASTY FOOD, DISTINGUISHED ATHLETES, POLITICAL BEINGS
Chapter 1 A Meaty Colony: Nigerians and the Animals They Ate	33
Chapter 2 The Living Machines of Imperialism: Animal Aesthetics, Imperial Spectacle, and the Political Economy of the Horse and Donkey	63
Chapter 3 “Dogs Are the Most Useful Animals”: A Canine History of Colonial Nigeria	91
Chapter 4 The Nigerian Political Zoo: Animal Art, Modernism, and the Visual Narrative of Nation Building	119
PART 2: PATHOLOGY, EMPATHY, ANXIETY
Chapter 5 “Beware of Dogs”: Rabies and the Elastic Geographies of Fear	145
Chapter 6 The Lion King in the Cage: Nature, Wildlife Conservation, and the Modern Zoo	175
Chapter 7 “Let Us Be Kind to Our Dumb Friends”: Animal Cruelty in the Discourse of Colonial Modernity	201

Chapter 8 “A Great Evil Ritual Murder”: The Save-the-Nigerian-Horse-and-Donkey Campaign	227
Conclusion	249
Notes	263
Bibliography	303
Index	315