

CONTENTS

Preface		ix
Introduction	Historicizing Environmental Justice in Southern Africa JANE CARRUTHERS, NANCY J. JACOBS, AND GRAEME WYNN	1
<hr/>
Part 1	New Histories of Postapartheid Environmental Justice
<hr/>
Chapter 1	Water and Sanitation Woes, Community Despondency, and Empty Democracy in South Africa MARY GALVIN	53
Chapter 2	Out of Bounds: Environmental Justice and the Square Kilometre Array Radio Telescope in South Africa's Northern Cape Karoo CHERRYL WALKER	95
Chapter 3	Social Resistance, Genetically Modified Maize, and Environmental Justice in South Africa MATTHEW A. SCHNURR	130
Chapter 4	The Politics of Blurry Lines in South Africa: From Apartheid to the Anthropocene SARAH IVES	161

Part 2	Decolonial Histories of Environmental Justice in Southern Africa
Chapter 5	Environmental Phenomena, Colonial Injustices, and Vernacular Discourse in Early Colonial Zimbabwe, 1895–ca. 1935 ADMIRE MSEBA	193
Chapter 6	Stick to Thy Hillock? James Machobane and the Problem of Agroecology in Lesotho CHRISTOPHER CONZ	221
Chapter 7	Land, Water, and Race: In Search of Truth and the Search for Environmental Justice in Southern Rhodesia MUCHAPARARA MUSEMWA	255
Chapter 8	Envisioning Environmental Justice in a Secondary South African City: The Edendale History Project MARC EPPRECHT	279
Afterword	Of Crocodiles, Chameleons, and the Burden of History GRAEME WYNN	305
	Selected Bibliography	335
	Contributors	343
	Index	347